

Year 3 Comprehension 2: The Time Travel Adventure

Once upon a time, in a small town in Australia, there lived a curious and adventurous girl named Emily. Emily was always eager to explore new things and learn about the world around her. One sunny afternoon, while playing in her backyard, she stumbled upon a magical old book hidden beneath a pile of leaves. The book had a mysterious title: "The Time Traveler's Adventure." Excitedly, Emily dusted off the book and opened it. To her surprise, the pages were filled with swirling colours and sparkling letters. As she touched one of the pages, a bright light engulfed her, and she found herself transported back in time to the age of dinosaurs.

Emily looked around in awe as she saw gigantic creatures roaming the land. She saw long-necked dinosaurs munching on leaves from tall trees and heard the deafening roar of a Tyrannosaurus Rex. Although she was a little scared, her curiosity pushed her forward.

Emily cautiously stepped closer to a small dinosaur, which seemed harmless. She observed it closely and noticed its scaly skin and sharp claws. The dinosaur seemed friendly, so she decided to name it Dotty. Together, they explored the prehistoric world, marveling at the wonders they encountered. Suddenly, Emily heard a loud rumbling noise. She turned around and saw a volcanic eruption in the distance. The ground shook, and hot lava flowed down the mountainside. Realizing the danger, Emily quickly grabbed Dotty's hand and started running towards safety.

With the volcano erupting behind them, Emily and Dotty reached a hidden cave. Inside, they found a time portal that would take them back to the present. Holding hands tightly, they stepped into the portal and were instantly transported to their own time. When Emily opened her eyes, she was back in her backyard, with the magical book lying beside her. She couldn't believe the incredible adventure she had just experienced. Emily closed the book, deciding to keep it a secret for now.

From that day forward, Emily cherished the memories of her time travel adventure. She realized that even though she couldn't physically go back in time again, she could always use her imagination to explore different places and learn about the past.

Emily began to write stories about her adventures and shared them with her friends at school. They were captivated by her tales and inspired to use their own imaginations to go on amazing journeys.

And so, Emily's love for adventure and learning continued to grow. She knew that no matter where her imagination took her, the possibilities were endless. And who knows, maybe one day, she would discover another magical book and embark on another incredible time travel adventure.
