

Year 3 Comprehension 16: The Friendly Dragon

Once upon a time, in a small town, lived a girl named Anastasia. Anastasia was a curious and adventurous girl with long, brown hair and bright blue eyes. One sunny afternoon, Anastasia's parents decided to take her to the park for a fun day out.

As they walked along the path towards the park, Anastasia spotted something shimmering in the distance. She tugged at her parents' sleeves and exclaimed, "Look! What's that shiny thing over there?"

Her parents turned their heads and saw a glimmering creature with large wings. It was a friendly dragon! Anastasia's eyes widened with excitement.

"Can we go and see it, please?" Anastasia asked her parents eagerly.

Her parents hesitated for a moment, but then they saw that the dragon had a kind smile on its face. They agreed, saying, "Alright, but we must be careful."

Anastasia approached the dragon cautiously, but the dragon greeted her warmly, wagging its tail. It introduced itself as Dazzle, the friendliest dragon in the land. Dazzle had shimmering green scales and eyes that sparkled like emeralds.

Anastasia couldn't contain her excitement. She asked Dazzle if she could touch its scales. With a nod, Dazzle lowered its head, and Anastasia gently ran her fingers along its smooth scales. It felt cool and bumpy, just like touching a seashell.

As they walked together towards the park, Anastasia and Dazzle talked about their favourite things. Anastasia discovered that Dazzle loved to soar through the sky and explore new places. Dazzle, in turn, was amazed to learn about Anastasia's favourite books and her love for playing in the park.

When they reached the park, Anastasia's parents couldn't believe their eyes. The other children and their parents were amazed to see a dragon accompanying Anastasia. But instead of being scared, everyone was excited and curious.

Anastasia and Dazzle spent the day playing together. They climbed trees, ran through the fields, and even had a friendly race. Dazzle had never experienced such fun before. The children cheered as Dazzle spread its wings and soared into the sky, performing gentle loops and twirls.

As the sun started to set, it was time to say goodbye. Anastasia hugged Dazzle tightly and thanked it for the amazing day.

"You'll always be my special friend," she said.

Dazzle nodded and gently flapped its wings, soaring back into the sky. Anastasia waved goodbye, her heart filled with joy and memories of her extraordinary adventure.

From that day forward, Anastasia cherished her time at the park, knowing that somewhere up above, her friend Dazzle was watching over her.

And so, Anastasia and Dazzle's friendship remained a magical memory in the hearts of everyone who witnessed their incredible bond.

The end.
