

Year 5 Comprehension 13: The Magical Amulet

In the small village of Evergreen, nestled deep in the heart of an ancient forest, there lived a young girl named Lily. Lily had always been drawn to stories of magic and adventure, but little did she know that one day, she would become a part of a magical tale herself.

One sunny morning, while exploring the forest, Lily stumbled upon a hidden glade bathed in golden light. At the center of the glade, beneath a glistening waterfall, she found a peculiar amulet. It was made of a shimmering blue stone encased in a delicate silver setting. The moment she touched it, a warm, comforting energy coursed through her.

Lily decided to wear the amulet, and as she did, she felt a surge of power. She realized that the amulet was no ordinary trinket; it was a magical amulet with the ability to grant wishes. All she had to do was close her eyes, make a wish, and believe in its magic.

At first, Lily used the amulet for small, everyday wishes. She wished for her garden to bloom with the most beautiful flowers, and it happened. She wished for her grandmother to feel better, and her illness seemed to fade away. But as time passed, she began to understand the responsibility that came with such power.

One day, as she explored deeper into the forest, Lily came across a wounded baby deer. Its leg was caught in a thorny bush, and it looked at her with eyes full of pain and fear. Lily knew she had to help, so she closed her eyes, held the amulet tightly, and wished for the deer to be free and healed.

The amulet glowed brightly, and with a gentle shimmer, the thorny bush released its grip on the deer, and its leg miraculously healed. The baby deer bounded away with newfound strength, leaving Lily in awe of the amulet's magic.

As she continued her adventures in the forest, Lily encountered other creatures in need. She helped a lost squirrel find its way home, turned a stormy day into sunshine for a group of picnicking families, and even mended a broken bird's wing.

But one evening, as she gazed at the amulet and thought about the magic it possessed, Lily realized that the amulet's true power was not in granting wishes, but in kindness and compassion. She understood that she could use the amulet to make the world a better place, not just for herself, but for everyone and everything around her.

From that day on, Lily devoted herself to spreading acts of kindness and compassion throughout Evergreen and beyond. She used the amulet to heal the forest, nurture its creatures, and make the village a place of harmony and happiness.

Lily's story spread far and wide, and she became known as the Keeper of the Magical Amulet. People came from near and far to seek her wisdom, not just for the magic of the amulet, but for the magic of kindness and the belief that even the smallest act of compassion could change the world.

And so, in the heart of the ancient forest, Lily and her magical amulet continued to bring hope, love, and happiness to all who crossed their path, reminding everyone that the truest magic of all was found within the kindness of the heart.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did Lily find in the hidden glade in the forest?

- a) A treasure chest
- b) A magical amulet
- c) A talking animal
- d) A secret map

2. What did Lily feel when she touched the amulet for the first time?

- a) Fear
- b) Coldness
- c) Warm, comforting energy
- d) Nothing at all

3. How did Lily activate the magic of the amulet?

- a) By singing a song
- b) By dancing
- c) By making a wish and believing in its magic
- d) By reciting a spell

4. What did Lily use the amulet for initially?

- a) To cast spells
- b) To become invisible
- c) To grant small wishes
- d) To fly

5. What responsibility did Lily realize came with the power of the amulet?

- a) The responsibility to keep it hidden
- b) The responsibility to share it with everyone
- c) The responsibility to use it for personal gain
- d) The responsibility to use it wisely and for the greater good

6. How did Lily help the wounded baby deer in the forest?

- a) She used the amulet to turn it into a bird.
- b) She used the amulet to grant it three wishes.
- c) She used the amulet to free it from a thorny bush and heal its leg.
- d) She left it alone and continued on her way.

7. What realization did Lily have about the amulet's true power?

- a) Its true power was in making people rich.
- b) Its true power was in making big, extravagant wishes.
- c) Its true power was in kindness and compassion.
- d) Its true power was in controlling the weather.

8. How did Lily become known in her village?

- a) As a powerful sorceress
- b) As a skilled magician
- c) As the Keeper of the Magical Amulet
- d) As the Queen of the Forest

9. What did people seek from Lily after she became known as the Keeper of the Magical Amulet?

- a) They sought her wisdom in using the amulet for personal gain.
- b) They sought her guidance in becoming wealthy.
- c) They sought her advice on how to use the amulet for big wishes.
- d) They sought her wisdom in spreading kindness and compassion.

10. What was the ultimate message of the story?

- a) Magic is only for personal gain.
- b) Kindness and compassion are the true sources of magic.
- c) Amulets should be kept hidden.
- d) Only big wishes matter.

Short Answer Questions

1. Where did Lily find the magical amulet?

---

---

---

---

2. What was special about the amulet?

---

---

---

---

3. What happened when Lily touched the amulet for the first time?

---

---

---

---

4. How did Lily use the amulet at first?

---

---

---

---

5. What realization did Lily have about the amulet's power?

---

---

---

---

6. What did Lily do to help the wounded baby deer?

---

---

---

---

7. How did Lily use the amulet to make the world a better place?

---

---

---

---

8. What did people come to know Lily as?

---

---

---

---

9. Why did people seek Lily's wisdom?

---

---

---

---

10. What was the central message of the story?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

Multiple Choice Questions

1. b) A magical amulet
2. c) Warm, comforting energy
3. c) By making a wish and believing in its magic
4. c) To grant small wishes
5. d) The responsibility to use it wisely and for the greater good
6. c) She used the amulet to free it from a thorny bush and heal its leg.
7. c) Its true power was in kindness and compassion.
8. c) As the Keeper of the Magical Amulet
9. d) They sought her wisdom in spreading kindness and compassion.
10. b) Kindness and compassion are the true sources of magic.

Short Answer Questions

1. Lily found the magical amulet in a hidden glade in the ancient forest.
2. The amulet was special because it had the power to grant wishes when worn.
3. When Lily touched the amulet, she felt a warm, comforting energy flow through her.
4. At first, Lily used the amulet for small, everyday wishes, like making her garden bloom with beautiful flowers.
5. Lily realized that the amulet's true power was not just in granting wishes but in spreading kindness and compassion.
6. Lily closed her eyes, held the amulet, and wished for the deer to be free and healed. The amulet granted her wish.
7. Lily used the amulet to perform acts of kindness and compassion, such as helping lost animals and turning stormy days into sunshine.
8. People came to know Lily as the "Keeper of the Magical Amulet."
9. People sought Lily's wisdom not only for the magic of the amulet but also for her message of kindness and compassion.
10. The central message of the story was that the truest magic was found within acts of kindness and compassion, and that even small acts could change the world for the better.

Personalised English & Math Tutoring

Redeem Free Assessment

successtutoring.com.au • 1800 188 867