

Year 2 Creative Writing 1: Writing poetry - Acrostic Poems

An acrostic poem is a form of poetry where the first letter of each line spells out a word, message, or the subject of the poem.

For example,
Supply days and laughter
Sunny days and laughter,
M oments of joy ever after,
In your heart, warm and wide,
Love that never seems to hide.
Eyes twinkling, carefree and bright.
In the above example, the word spelt out is 'SMILE'
What word is in the poem below?
Eternal sands, where history sleeps,
G olden deserts, where camels walk on by.
Y earning for knowledge of ancient people,
Pineapples are nowhere to be seen,
Timeless wonders!
