

Year 5 Creative Writing: Writing to a stimulus - Poems

Read the poem below:

In the heart of youth, where dreams take flight,
A Year 5 student seeks a world so bright.
With laughter and joy, like a sunlit beam,
Let's craft a poem on the theme of gleam.

In the morning light, a smile unfolds,
Happiness dances in stories untold.
Friends gather 'neath the vibrant school sky,
Chasing giggles as the moments fly.

Through playgrounds echoing with laughter's song,
Happiness grows, sturdy and strong.
Like petals of flowers in a colorful array,
Each moment is a treasure, brightening the day.

Lessons learned with joy in every rhyme,
Knowledge blooms, like a flower in its prime.
Curiosity sparkles in eyes so keen,
In the joy of learning, happiness is seen.

As the sun dips low and the day takes its leave,
Families unite, hearts gently heave.
Love and laughter, a harmonious blend,
Happiness, a gift that never ends.

So, Year 5 friend, let joy be your guide,
In every twist and turn of life's sweet ride.
For in your heart, like a radiant sun,
Happiness shines bright for everyone.
